DIY Kits

Kits don't seem to have as big a focus in mainstream grocery retail as they did at Christmas, however, there are still many offerings online. Some kits are also designed as a personalised gift.

GIFTING

Hampers
From small online businesses to large retailers such as M&S, hampers are proving popular this year. They can be both a fantastic gift, and also a 'one stopshop' solution-getting all you need for a great Easter in one box.

ONLINE TRENDS

Chocolate Geodes

A popular 'lockdown' treat all year round, and a common staple in treat boxes. These are becoming popular online. They can be customised to Spring/Easter as chicks, rabbit heads and tails, and can be filled with mini eggs etc.

Chocolate Scotch Eggs
 Round mini easter eggs such as Cadbury's Crème Egg are coated with a crumb mixed with frosting, or cookie dough. Breadcrumbs are replicated using biscuit crumb or sprinkles, and then decorated with additional toppings such as melted chocolate.

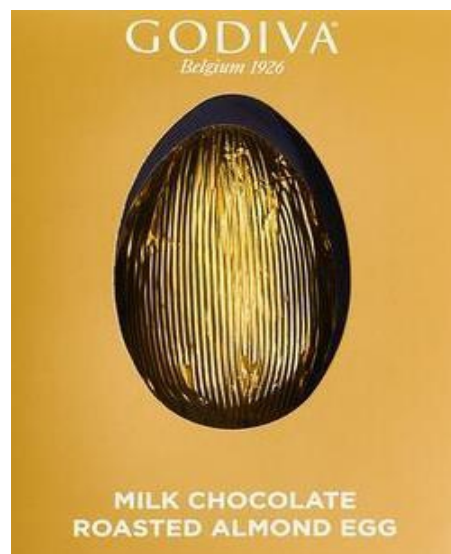

Buttercream Piping

With the huge popularity of Frosting, it is no surprise that colourful piping is trending online this Easter. An all year round trend that has a 'pastel' takeover during Easter/Spring, which includes bouquets, piped flowers, and coloured toppings with sprinkles/ sugarpastetoppers.

AUSTRALIAN TRENDS

- Trending flavours: salted caramel, honeycomb, cookies & cream, strawberries & cream, white chocolate & raspberry, coconut, experiential flavours & textures (popping candy, fruit tingles etc)
- “Better for you” trend is gaining momentum: dairy free, gluten free, nut free, sugar free, vegan, UTZ, fair trade etc.
- Premiumisation: mainly observed in eggs & gifting categories
- DIY/ Activitykits: gained popularity across several supermarket categories & events since COVID.
- Hotcross buns: Like the UK, now available in a multitude of sweet flavours, and savoury recipes too.

AMERICAN TRENDS

Top US trends:

- Focus on Easter candytoputinbaskets (chocolate & sweets)
- Popular flavours: chocolate & nuts (peanuts, almonds , hazelnuts),cookies &cream, caramel, dark chocolate
- Filled centres (Oreo, Crème Egg etc)
- Giftbasketsofcandy
- Bunnies
- Plastic eggs to decorate & fill with candy
